The MARYLAND GAZETTE.

[XIXth Year.] THURSDAY, October 6, 1763. [No. 961.]

ANNAPOLIS, October 6.

ON Tuesday last the General Assembly of this Province met here, when the Session was opened with

The SPEECH of his Excellency HORATIO SHARPE, Esq; Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Province of MARYLAND, to Both Houses of Assembly:

Gentlemen of the Upper and Lower Houses of Assembly,

THE unexampled Successes with which his Majesty's vigorous Measures were Blessed, during the Course of the late War, having, since I had last an Opportunity of Addressing myself to you in your Legislative Capacity, enabled Him to restore Peace to his People, on Terms of Glory and great Advantage; Terms particularly calculated for the future Security and Prosperity of these Colonies, I cannot open this Session without Congratulating you on that happy Event, as well as on the auspicious Birth of a Prince of Wales, under whom your Posterity may enjoy the innumerable Blessings, We, in common, with the Rest of his Majesty's Subjects, at this Period, derive from the propitious Reign of the Best of Sovereigns.

I have been induced, Gentlemen, to convene you at this Time, by an Opinion that you would be glad to have an Opportunity, before the Expiration of our Inspection Law, of Considering what farther Amendments to that Act it might be expedient to make for the better Advancement of our Staple, and by what other Means, consistent with the Laws of Great-Britain, the whole Trade of this Province might be Encouraged and Promoted. You will also, I presume, think it your Duty to examine at this Time into the State of our public Funds; and, if necessary, to provide for any Deficiencies which may have arisen from the long Continuance of the War, or other Accidents; and if you should now have Leisure to consider the Claims which those of the Militia, whom the Necessity of the Times obliged me to order into actual Service, and many other Persons have on the Public, I am in Hopes you will both adjust such Accounts, and make the necessary Provision for Payment.

Interested, Gentlemen, as you are in the Prosperity and Welfare of this Province, you come together, I flatter myself, at this Time, with a proper Disposition and Temper to advance it, and with a Resolution to avoid every Measure that can tend to interrupt the Harmony which ought to subsist between those whose true Interests are the same, and which alone can render your Meetings of any real Benefit or Utility to your Country.

LONDON, July 4.

ON Saturday Sen'night about Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, a terrible Fire happened at Offord Clany in Huntingdonshire, by Means of heating an Oven, from Wood and Thatch lying too near the Crown of it, and in about two Hours Time consumed the greatest Part of the Town, to the Number of 22 Farm and other Dwelling-Houses. There was a strong Wind at South-West, which drove the Fire into the uttermost Part of the Town, so that the greatest Part of the Damage was done before the Engines of Godmanchester, Huntingdon, and St. Neot's, arrived. The next Morning the Bishop of Lincoln sent Provisions and Drink to the Distressed; and the same Morning the Mayor and principal Gentlemen of Huntingdon sent Bread, Cheese, and some Barrels of Beer, for their immediate Relief, and are making a general Collection from House to House; and we hear that most of the Towns in the Country will send in their Benefactions without any Application from the Sufferers.

The following is an Account of the Robbery for which Thomas, alias W. Dawson, was committed to Newgate, on Thursday Night last; and also a Narrative of the Manner of his being apprehended. About five Weeks ago the said Usher (that being his real Name) hired himself to Mr. James, Master of the Bath and Bristol Waggons, as a Clerk, by the Name of William Dawson; on Saturday Morning, June 25, Capt. Thomas, Capt. of a Vessel bound from Cork to Bristol, who had on board 1800l. in Portugal Money consigned to several Merchants in London, applied to Mr. James's House in order to have it forwarded to London, and accordingly in Mr. James's Absence, Mr. Jones, another Clerk of the said Mr. James, received the said Cash, giving the Captain a Receipt for it: Soon after which Usher applied to the Capt. and informed him that he was Mr. James's head Clerk, and must therefore give a Receipt for the Money, for that Mr. Jones's Receipt was good for nothing; the Capt. accordingly accepted the said Usher's Receipt for the same; and this Step taken by Usher, was in order to give a Colour of Trust, and thereby to take off the Crime of Felony. The same Night, however, Usher disappeared, with the Money which he took out of his Master's Warehouse, and the Rout he had taken was not discovered till the Monday following. Notice of which was sent Express from Bristol to Sir John Fielding, but the Information sent by the Express not containing any Particulars as to the Manner Usher travelled, all Pursuits proved ineffectual till Wednesday last at two o'Clock, (when Mr. James, having come home to Bristol and found that not only the said Sum 1800l. was missing, but also 200l. of his own Cash, and two Watches belonging to his Servants) had traced Usher himself to the Oxford Arms in Oxford-Road, where he was taken out of a Post-Chaise and four Horses, the preceding Day about twelve o'Clock, by an unknown Hackney Coach; which Intelligence being communicated to Sir John Fielding, Hand-Bills were immediately dispersed to all the Coach Stands, &c. in London, promising the Coachman two Guineas on his giving Notice where he set down his Fare, which had its desired Effect; and it appeared that Usher had paid the Coachman extraordinary to carry him along the New-Road, round by Islington, &c. but that he had set him down at the Black Bull in Whitechapel. This Intelligence was pursued by the Justice in Person, with proper Officers, and a Clerk of Mr. James's; and by the Behaviour of Mr. Palmer, (the Landlord of the Black Bull) and the Assistance he gave on the Occasion, he was soon discovered, and was pursued and apprehended at two o'Clock the next Morning, in Hertfordshire, most of the Portugal Money being first found on searching the Lodgings of his Wife in Whitechapel; and on a more particular Search on Friday last, near 100l. more was found concealed in the said Lodgings, and one of the above Watches; which Usher, on his Re-examination, confessed to be Part of the Money and the Watch he had taken out of his Master's House: A Letter was also found wrote to his Wife on his Arrival in Town, wherein he desires her to meet him at Fairfax's on Epping Forest, and to invite her Brother and Sister to come along with her, having got joyful News to them, no less (says he) than 1000l. in the Lottery, which I have got about me.

The above William Dawson was discovered by Means of the Hackney-Coachman, who shewed to Mr. James's Brother, and other Persons, on Wednesday, the House where he set Dawson down in Whitechapel; in which House they found upwards of 700l. which he had left there, and where also they discovered his Retreat at Sabridgeworth in Hertfordshire.

BOSTON, September 15.

We hear that the Heirs of Thomas Greene, Esq; in Compliance with a Design he had often mentioned in his Time of Health, and repeated on his Death Bed, have generously offered the Sum of 500l. Sterling to Trinity Church in this Town, to be a Fund (together with such Additions as could be obtained) for the perpetual Maintenance of an Assistant Minister to the Episcopal Churches in and about Boston, especially to Trinity Church (to which the Deceased and his Heirs more particularly belong) when they may be by any Means vacant: And accordingly said Church have already made a considerable Subscription, and expect in a short Time to compleat an equal Sum to that Donation, the Interest of the whole to be applied to the said Use. So that by the worthy Design of the said Deceased, with the Concurrance of the generous Heirs and Subscribers, the Episcopal Churches in these Parts will soon have a Supply in Time of Need, that has hitherto been greatly wanted.

By a Vessel from Halifax we are informed, That a considerable Number of Indians had assembled together in Nova-Scotia, but with what Design we have not yet learned.

NEW-YORK, September 26.

We hear that one of our Vessels on Lake Erie, was lately cast away on her Voyage from Niagara to Detroit, loaded with Provisions.

We are credibly informed, that the Merchants of this City expect, in a few Weeks, from Ireland, about 6000 Firkins of the best Irish Butter: on the Arrival of which 'tis not impossible the Country People, who used to supply our Markets, may be obliged to purchase large Quantities of Salt.

PHILADELPHIA, September 29.

Extract of a Letter from Carlisle, Sept. 20, 1763.

"Of late we have had no Disturbance on this Frontier from our Savage Neighbours; which is, by no Means, I apprehend, to be accounted for from any Change in their Dispositions, but from their Time being taken up in removing their Families, and putting themselves into a better Situation to accomplish their bloody Designs. I was last Week through the upper end of this County, where the People are, at present, following their Labour as usual, and will, unless prevented by fresh Troubles, have in a large Fall Crop. A considerable Number of the Inhabitants of both Cove were then gone home, and designed to put in their Grain, for the future Support of their Families. Many of the Inhabitants had likewise returned to the Canalloways, but on fresh Alarms from the Virginia Frontiers, were, as I was informed, soon back to Fort Frederick. Through all this last Scene of Troubles, one Man, and his Wife, kept their Place in the Little Cove, though entirely by themselves.

"While I was up there, we had several Reports from Virginia, to know the Certainty of which, I sent to a Gentleman of Note near Patowmack, who was gone from Home; but his Wife informed the Messenger, that her Husband had received Letters from Virginia, advising, that some Time of the Week before last, a large Party of Indians came down on the Frontier of Augusta County, designing, as was supposed, to strike a small Town there; but being discovered by some Men, who were out hunting Horses, the Inhabitants were alarmed of their Approach, and turned out, in a large Body, to meet them, which they accordingly did, and an obstinate Engagement ensued; wherein, though the White People lost a considerable Number, yet they kept the Field, and brought off with them 15 Indian Scalps, and a considerable Quantity of Plunder.

"The Messenger was also informed, that a Party of the Virginia Rangers having, the same Week, come on some Tracks of Indians going out from the Inhabitants, followed them till Evening; when, sending some of their Party to the Top of a Hill, they discovered the Indian Fire, and made towards it: And that as they went along, they heard the Enemy fire 15 Guns, which they supposed was the Party emptying their Pieces, as the Day had been wet, in order to clean them; upon which they halted up, and immediately fired on the Savages, as they sat round the Fire, and killed three of them; the rest fled, leaving behind 13 Guns, and a Number of Moccasons.

"I was also informed, that on Thursday Night, the 8th Instant, a large Party of Indians were discovered dancing round their Fire on Patterson's Creek, which empties into the South Branch of Patowmack; but that the Persons who saw them, being but three or four, did not discover themselves, but went and alarmed the Neighbourhood.

"It is certain that they have had on that Frontier frequent Alarms, and several Skirmishes with the Indians, in which the white People always beat the Enemy. And it is worth remarking, that since this War broke out, there has not been one Engagement in which the Indians got the better of our People, on any Part of the Frontier, that I can recollect.

"On Tuesday, the 13th Instant, a small Party of Indians were chaced, in the Little Cove, by a Party of the Maryland Scouts. The Inhabitants of Path Valley, and a Number of Shearman's, will, I expect, have in Crops sufficient for next Year's Support, if no new Troubles come upon us, and a Guard be continued; but ranging Parties, and a Reward for Scalps, are the Means which, under GOD, would most likely answer the End."

On the 22d Instant, the Number of Sea Vessels in this Port was as follows, viz.

|---|---|---|---|
| Ships | — | — | 37 |
| Snows | — | — | 9 |
| Brigs | — | — | 31 |
